From The Aldine for February. Disinterment of the Coliseum. of diamonds, any one of which any lady A correspondent of the Times has written a singularly interesting account of what may fairly be called the disenerment of the Coliseum, now proceeding under the direction of Signor Rosa; and the picture which it presents of the engineering ingenuity, as well as archdevoted to their truculent sports is rather awful. The excavations have now laid bare part of the Arena, which is proved to have been a solid floor, paved with herring bone work, and not a movable platform. Upon the arena converged a number of large, tunnel shap-one of the inner necklace, being of even a topic which engaged the minds of bell again. There being no response he chambers, vast enough to accommodate greater size and value than that. The ment of gates such that, without danger ed by ear-rings of corresponding value casion the two troopers talked earnestly to the keepers, even the hundred lions, and design—a union of round stones on the subject. One believed in the imrecorded by Vospicus as having bounded on its floor together, might be admitt- all within borders of smaller stones— but then and there each pledged the othed to the view of the 87,000 lords of which, however, are small only by com- or that should death come to him durcreation in the amphitheater. A magnithey are satellites. This magnificent if possible. ficent corridor, not yet perfectly cleared. but having evidently no lateral galleries decoration, the value of which can not which the gladiator emerged to his duel sand dollars, and which, if all the stones in the hereafter was killed—and his driver, pushing the door clear open. and the martyr to his cross. Through were of the very first water, would comit, too, it would seem, were removed the mand more nearly two hundred thous. Mississippi. slaughtered corpses and carcasses, while and, is merely an addition to the long That was nearly twelve years ago. your fare or get off! exclaimed the the applause of the audience and the list of rich presents received by Miss The surviving trooper was deeply griev- driver, winding the lines around the bellowing of the other beasts waiting for Sherman or her marriage. It is a com- ed over the loss of his friend, but he brake. their gate to swing round, must have pliment from the Khedive of Egypt to continued in the service till the end of 'Grashus me! If there is going to be a made terrible harmonies.

VOLUME 2.

[From the New York Times, 28th.]

Powhatan's Palace.

not love the French measure. He says: daughter, as she holds no office of profit

"The polar axis is estimated at 7,8994 or trust under the United States, may miles, or 500 millions of inches a thous do so, although the fact that her husandth part longer than our present band is in the Federal service might, at standard inch, which probably only least on some old-fashioned grounds, be came by accident to be what it was when held to preclude her from receiving such the standard was taken, and might just a very valuable gift from a foreign poas well be a thousendth more: True, tentate. But apart from this considerathe other European nations have inches tion, the question presents itself, What than ours. The French meter 39,371 who does not wear a crown, or at least a too, and some of them are rather longer will she do with it? What does any lady inches, is the worst measure in the world coronet, when she is in full dress, do because it is inconsistent with any natur- with such a stupendous ornament as this? sleep. Just before Christmas, while al one, whereas our yard is the long She may keep it locked up, and on propstride of a man of good height, and the natural length of his walking stick, and looking at it, or provoke the envy of her form before them, that had walked a strength in a mighty effort. It was very half his height, or half the stretch of his dearest friends by exhibiting it to them few feet in their advance ever since they successful. The driver went out of the arms; and the meter is not even what it pretends to be, the 40 millionth of a such a possession! A guard ought to be meridian of the earth, for the measure set over it night and day. As to weartaken was erroneous, and if it were, such ing it, the owner would, if she had any with her fears concerning her husband, the victim was trying to get his thumb taken was erroneous, and if it were, such a standard is of no more real value than taste or sense of congruity, be utterly at aste or sense of congruity, be utterly at a loss to find any good reason for so doing. We have no occasions here when ing. The sense of congruity, be utterly at and the doctor returned to her home with her, and both demanded the reason for his strange conduct; heretofore of trying to force on us this bad, erroneous, arbitrary, and revolutionary measure of a nation which tried also to such ornaments are in place. Even in he had refused to converse with his wifeon the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his comthan any other, and is evidently destin- is absurd.

Sir Edward, we think, is about right, sure than the meter.

ed to advance more and more."

two miles distant. The rain was falling J. H. Seawell. A rude cabin has been Several times the form seemed to acfast, and that he might not get wet, built to the chimney, and now, around Amanda prevailed on her lover to rethe same hearth where his Majesty, the peared to him in his bed-room plainly being in great agony. The pain he endured in his feet, every time his main and sleep with her brother, a sym- King of Pamaunkee, and their highness, every few nights. This was his plain weight came upon them, he declared pathetic cherub of three years. In the most violent toothmorning, as he was departing, he reachsmoke their native weed, a son of Africa, story, and we give it as it was given to us. The patient knew that he had been us.

Was worse than the most violent toothache. If the most desperate criminal ed out his hand full length for a fare- with his broken-stemmed chalk pipe, affected by the visitation; his sleep had in our prisons were obliged to perform farewell grasp, and in a subdued voice gathers his sable brood, all uncoscious been broken, nervousness engendered, and appetite much impaired. Weeks the sympathies of every heart in the for your hospitality, but I would have been dryer to have gone home in the he now lies. Here that event which insane patient his relatives believe him ought to be allowed to do it voluntarily.

er made his appearance, when the Ger- parson says: "Our bachelor friend was bor is less wearing than the toil of the counting room and office and he has more its gray color and tough, hard texture. get a fair fling at him!" as far again as it did a few years ago. | to feel thankful for them.

Somerset

SOMERSET, OHIO: FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1875.

SPECTRAL VISITATIONS. MISCELLANY.

A Compact Kept-The Stings of Conscience-A Promise Fulfilled.

What Will She Do with It! Incre is at present stored in this city for safekeeping—we need not say where ever heard of in this portion of the young men who had fixed up a straw circumstances a parallel to which perfor safekeeping—we need not say where -a diamond necklace of such splendor public notice, even were it not on other considerations. It is a double necklace, tor says the man is insame—a monom— hat pulled low, his arms down, and was was celebrated in the prison chapel at From a full report of it in the Courier— more. After remaining silent for some considerations. It is a double necklace, aniac-while the patient himself deso braced up against the end of the car the close of the regular services. The Journal we copy the following passages time, as if musing, he said: "Well, well, might with pleasure see upon her finger. he talks sensible enough on every topic ger as any one. The car moved off, afmight with pleasure see upon her anger.

But in each necklace, both inner and brought to his notice, not excepting the ter a while, and as it turned Michigan ing County, in May 1873, under a two "I have said he had no home. That which to be buried; dying upon a borrow-But in each necklace, both inner and one which has alarmed his friends and avenue, an old lady got aboard. She years' sentence, each for burglary. An- was true; because he had in him none ed bed, covered with a borrowed sheet, inch and a half, a large diamond, so caused a physician's attention. finger, and of a size that very few of the in the 2d Iowa Cavalry during the war, the driver keeping his eye on the dumfair venture-even if they can afford- and when the regiment was in camp my,' and wondered if he was going to to wear as solitaire ear-rings. In the near Devenport he and a fellow soldier try to beat his fare. middle of the inner neeklace is a stone of his company became warm friends, At First street the driver jingled his of great size, the worth of which must although strangers before enlistment. bill of fare, and the two young men and be fully ten thousand dollars, and from One day in May, 1863, we believe the the old lady looked over at the straw the outer one depend seven pear-shaped two were on picket near Farmington, man. The car moved up to Third street, stones of very unusual size, the middle Miss., and they fell into conversation and the driver looked through his winone, which hangs just below the large about the state of the soul after death- dow and yelled "fare" and jingled the necklace is not alone. It is accompanion most of our readers know. On this oc- straw man:

The next day a battle was fought near be less than one hundred and fifty thou- Farmington, and the party who believed the soldier who made the great march to the war, and was honorably discharged fight let me off? shouted the old lady, when his regiment was mustered out, and she rushed down the car and made THE FRENCH METER.—Sir Edmund We believe that General Sherman He turned to Iowa, engaged in business a clean jump to the door. Beckett is a true Englishman, and does could not accept this present, but his presently, was married, and has a family. Now, then, are you going to pay your alarmed at his actions in the night. He car. would wake her and ask her if she saw 'Pay-be-hanged,' was the muttered re anybody or heard any noise in the room; Ply and, of course, she had not. In a few ing nervous over his nocturnal wakeful- the driver. ness, he insisted upon occupying a room alone-but on the third night thereafter he came to his wife's bed-room at mid- off he goes." with his wife on 2d street, the intention 'dummy' by the shoulders. His object

On Christmas the wife went to the on top of him, and the young men leap-

The good old yard stick is a better mea- A correspondent of the Richmond but he had long since dismissed it have occurred—the rescue of Captain every topic suggested except the one walking on a wager of $500 with a pri-Three brothers bearing a remarkable Smith by Pocahontas. This old chim- that refers to the ghost, and he believes vate citizen of Pittsfield, then the pri-man has the fastest beard I never saw! to go and see it,' said one. Here is man has the fastest beard I never saw! to go and see it,' said one. Here is man has the fastest beard I never saw! to go and see it,' said one. Here is man has the fastest beard I never saw! to go and see it,' said one. Here is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half water is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half water is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half water is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half water is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half water is injurious to the rubbed again, and allowed to sleep half with each screw in the place assigned for in bitter and contemptations fall and 's common necessaries of life. It is with each screw in the place assigned for it. It is supposed to have been hung up the common necessaries of life. It is only a short time ago that a grocery and things, said the preacher. Another time ago that a grocery and the provision store was broken open and is concluded. Noah Brooks tells about dinner-times, and he comes back now mit his beard so long as it never vash!"

American Farmers.—The Artisan says: "We hazard the assertion that no says: "We hazard the save and he comes back now mit his peacher. Another mit his p says: "We hazard the assertion that no said, I have married a wife, and thereclass of equal average means, live so fore cannot come.' 'Here is a case of ter is not only clearer, colder, and more day of rest.—[Springfield Republican, hands by Mrs. M. Huff, in whose famiwell as American farmers. One of these natural impossibility, from which we free from air, and more agreeable to the January 25th. possessing a farm and buildings, worth may infer, continued our bachelor taste than soft, but that it is less liable ten thousand dollars, will gather about preacher, 'that one woman will pull a to the absorbtion of organic matter and him and enjoy more real comfort, than man farther from the Lord than ten to the sustenance of the life of zymotic organisms or to exert solvent one hundred thousand dollars in New properties upon salts of iron or upon laced a conducting pipes. And he claims ous dwelling than a metropolitan citizen was examining a class of little boys from that the lime-salts exert a beneficial ina Scripture catechism. The first ques- fluence. It is stated that a practical test joining house, and thence to the next, having ten thousand dollars annual intion was: "Who stoned Stephen?" of the truth of this new theory is to be come. He may have his carriage and

A teacher in a Sunday school in R—

come. He may have his carriage and come. The urst quest fluence. It is stated that a practical test till his antics had attracted quite a ty of New Englanders were taken in the determined and continued efforts to continued efforts to continued dollars in money, all of which to the death of a local giant: On Weddiscusses." "The Jews." Second question: "Where had in the case of the residents of moun- crowd of persons in the street below. horses. His table may be supplied with had in the case of the residents of mountainous districts, where the water is all the specially some aged 21 years, residing near Douglas- in High Places." The Old Cabinet has its of the city." Third question: "Why most invariably hard, and where the its of the city." Third question: "Why most invariably hard, and where the but of months and years; that when the but of months are the but of months and years; that when the but of months are the but of months a its of the city." Third question: "Why most invariably hard, and where the did they take him beyond the limits of inhabitants exhibit the best physical dediction best of the Church. I have also a lot of section for his remarkable weight, died cient Verse," and "The Distinction best of the Church did they take him beyond the limits of the city?" was not in the book, and proved a poser to the whole class; it proved a poser to the claims that water considered a poser to the cla

Missouri also has some of rather inferior quality. Western Ohio claims good walnut, but that of Eastern Ohio and West Virginia is poor in quality. The whole stock of the States is not equal to a full demand for ten years to come. Furniture manufactures do not uso it as fairly as they did five years ago. Other woods are substituted when possible, and 0,000 feet of walnut are made to as far again as it did a few years ago.

It is a hard winter, but the prace of alcohol that he craved, and he must have or question gond and the must have or question of the following: Pure sweet milk and he must have been a singularly to provide the reacht to present him with $700 worth of plate, was so conscientious and high minded to some agency similar to that which recently caused the mysterious and he must have or question to the following: Pure sweet milk and he must have for ong mad or district tips continues panicity—or, rather, there is a whole agriculsural sermon in the following: Pure sweet milk and he must have or question to have been a singularly to present him with $700 worth of plate, was so conscientious and high minded to place, that the seconded incherises but to present him with $700 worth of plate, was so conscientious and high minded to was so conscientious and high minded to place, that the seconded incherises and carriage, roomy door-yards, the least of the proposed to have been a singularly to the final fure to conquer this consuming the following: Pure sweet milk and he must have of the must have or question to strict tips continues panicity—or, rather, the the prace of alcohol that he craved, and he must have of order the must have the recity; and it was not of till two police officers entered the must have of the following: Pure sweet milk and the must have the recity and stated the mysterious position.

A Missouri legislator hearing that in the following: Pure sweet milk and the was so conscientious and high minded to some agency similar to that the pure of his constituents were about the present manufac It is a hard winter, but the price of attributed to some agency similar to that Fooling a Car Driver.

The other night, as the 'last car' on the Michigan avenue route was turning around on the table at the corner of

'Say you! You want to pay your fare!'

'You man, there-wake up here and One of the young men sat opposite 'dummy,' and he squalled out in reply.

There was no answer and after going

'Drive on the old hearse!' 'What? What's that?' shouted

'See here, mister, youv'e got to pe

Some five weeks ago, his wife became fare?" said the driver as he entered the

'You'd better look out for him; he's days, finding that his wife was becom- ugly,' whispered the other young man to 'I don't care if he's as ugly as John

Jacob Astor, he's got to pay his fare or The driver slid, down to the end of the car, spit on his hands and continued. 'Well, here you comel' and grabbed being to purchase holiday goods, he ask- was to jerk the 'fellow' out of doors, and car heels over head, with the straw man but his heart wasn't too full for utterance and he told us all about it. It runs something like this: Sitting chatting like this: Sitting chat something like tims: Sitting chatting with Amanda Jane, his sweet heart, they did not notice the flight of time till three o'clock in the morning, when he arose and proposed to walk to his home, and then it was because he had become to his wife about it, and then it was because he had become to his senses. He kept in good spirits, when rational but every flag on the virginia archaeologist. It is sit as if the visitor was glad to see his wife about it, and then it was sented by one of his trainers, who was very fearful that he would throw his ankles out of joint and, being the dinner hour, and when I happen at the dinner hour, and the internal at the dinner hour, and th

In a Tight Place.

influence of liquor, a few days since,

climbed out upon his roof, and amused doubtless saved the colonies is said to to be, though he talks as sensible on If it is true, as Waters said, that he was from father to son until it found its way rough har room and hear him prostitute Three brothers bearing a remarkable resemblance to one another, are in the same barber's shop in New York. Not long ago one of the brothers entered the shop early in one of the few reminders left us by time of the ghost, and he believes that refers to the ghost and the property tha of the brothers entered the shop early in morning, and was shaved by a German, who had been at work in the shop only for a day or two. About noon another brother came in, and underwent a similar brother came in, and underwent as imilar brother came in, and underwent as in the brothe thoroughly rubbed and put to bed near pick it, even from expert safe-makers. for a moment from beneath his slouch-

A man in Baltimore, while under the

to Annie, and has sent her a very hand

A Wedding at the Penitentiary THE LAST DAYS OF TOM MAR- said: 'No, sir, to, sir, I do not wish to Marriage of Two Convicts-A Distinguished Assemblage of Guests. The Unhappy End of a Life of Bril- this world. I have failed in all I have liant Opportunities. A marriage ceremony took place in paid her fare, the two yound men fol- nie is thirty years of age, and is the of the home qualities. He could not or in a house built by charity. Well, well, Coshocton County. About a year be- death of Dr. Lewis Marshall he gave to or more he looked through the open wininto a flouring mill and stole two sacks tract a small but comfortable cottage field; I have been crowded all my life, of flour, which was used in Walker's was erected and paid for by the liberality and I do not wish to be crowded after persons were arrested, and all arraigned returning. How he lived, and what low, at the same term of Court. Miles and manner of life he led, it is indeed diffi- "As the years pass away, and time and Walker were found guilty of their cult to describe. crimes and sentenced, while Annie was "In August, 1863, two years before vices and his misfortunes are forgotten.

which had hitherto been unknown to boys on the street and read and explain victory after a well-fought contest. the prison officers. On learning that to them their Latin and Greek exercises. they were each of the same mind on the He would gather around him a group subject of their marriage as before com- of men or boys-any one for an audience Theoretically, a man has a right to book, but be added: "Save my dinner ful remembrance which Samuel Thompquestion is a specimen of the kind of saying it was his first food for twenty- in the rents, issues and profits of his the seeds, which are inclosed in a capsafe used twelve hundred years ago. For four hours, and he had no expectation property, which dower right cannot be sule. These from February to June, baronial family, who handed it down was pitiful to follow him into the cheap, her forgiveness." to the New World and the heart of the his genius and great gifts to produce Mississippi valley. A safe-but not the coarse and vulgar wit to amuse a lot of ting effects of alcohol that he craved, of two dollars a bottle."

pray. I had no land in coming into ever seriously attempted or desired whilst in it. I shall make no arrange-One of the strangest cases of insanity Woodward and Jefferson avenues, two > told by the Prosecuting Attorney that his death, Mr. Marshall, in a communi- He is remmbered as a brilliant wit, a she might go home; but she asked that cation to one of the Louisville papers, most accomplished and fascinating lawthe indictment might be read to her, to had occassion to speak of himself, using yer. Let no one suppose that his was a which she pleaded guilty, saying that if the third person, when he employed the dash at fame, that he gained only tem-Miles, her lover, went to prison she following language: "He seemed to porary notoriety, or that he drew inspirwanted to go with him. She was ac- have lost caste in Versailles with all ation from liquor while he abused the cordingly sentenced for two years, the political parties, and to be utterly with- prodigal gifts of nature. That would be same term that Miles received. They out weight, influence or social position far from the truth. Mr. Marshall was were sent up to Columbus, and have in Woodford. A few of his old friends all his life a patient and diligent student. since been exemplary prisoners in the still frequent his company, and court his He gained success only when entirely penitentiary. A few months since Annie conversation in his sober intervals." free from drink, and after laborious ever mindful of her vows, and anxious This was a sad picture-drawn by his study. Every great attempt, made withabout her betrothed, made inquiries of own pen-and yet it hardly did justice out preparation or when under the inher guard if Miles was still in prison, it to the facts. The 'sober intervals' be- fluence of his master passion, was more being the first time she had asked con- came less frequent. He grew sad for or less a failure. He, like all the sons of cerning him since her imprisonment. want of company, for want of mental men, had no royal road to fame, and on The guard's curiosity was aroused, and employment, for want of intellectual ly found the pearls of wisdom after a a little investigation revealed the plot association. He would stop the school- diligent search, or enjoyed the fruits of Righting a Wrong. ing behind the prison bare, it was ar- and read to them from ancient or mod- leave his property to whom he will; human race was in existence, it was neranged that their wedding should take ern history, but more frequently from practically, he can do nothing of the cessarily confined to a middle region, as the exhibition will be purely agriculplace on the day of the expiration of his own writings, which had been pubtheir sentence, which fell upon the 31st lished in 1858 by Mr. W. L. Barre.— gards as his natural beirs present their only during those warmer periods which Breeding oxen for speed a few years, we of January, some time having been gain- He would pause in these street readings, claims properly. Society holds it to be alternated with the cold seasons. What would be likely to have a different race ed by a strict observance of prison dis- and explain, criticise, condemn or ap- his duty to take care of his family, even lands he occupied during these cold sea- of cows. By all means. cipline. Since the arrangements for the prove the subject of the writer. He to the extent of providing for aged and sons is entirely unknown; and though extraordinary occasion were made, the was exceedingly fond of reading from indigent parents, and the law enforces this is one of the questions which make parties were allowed an interview, in his own essays or articles published be- that duty, to the end that they may not the study of the native African and his the presence of the Warden, and it is tween 1839 and 1850, and of pointing become a public charge. And rightly neighbors so important, it is very doubtdrawing it mild to say that it was an out how subsequent events had demon-enough, this obligation is extended after ful if the inquiry will ever progress so affectionate meeting, after a separation strated his wisdom or confirmed his his death to his property, as we see evof nearly two years, with only the stone views. I now own a copy of his writings, ery day in the case of persons who die, preceded by an immense period of time walls of the prison between them. Some which I have often lent him, and which leaving their earthly treasures to strangfew weeks ago the local reporters of this he pencil-marked through and through. ers by blood and cutting off their imcity gave the occasion a gratuitous advertisement, and an account of it fell into the hands of a wealthy lady named hazardous charity supplied his wants. ly is that "undue influence" has been man was in a southern country; and for Wilson, who took a compassionate fancy He slept many nights in a chair in the used on the testator, or that he was "not ages the southern man must have been common sitting-room of a cheap country of sound mind:" and it is rare indeed superior in development to his northern some traveling suit, in which to start tavern; in warm weather he slept on a that a trial on either ground results alsure of a nation which tried also to abolish the week and make a new one of ten days, and whose language is declining over the world, while ours already in gover the world, while ours already in the disposal for the world, while ours already in the disposal for the world, while ours already in the disposal for the world, while ours already in the disposal for the world, while ours already in the stage of Goodrich Hall, Pittsfield, in the evening on the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his companies of the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his companies of the story of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the professional walker, as shown on the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his companies to geology gives to the degma of the mystalling the cooler, nights of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the professional walker, as shown on the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his companies to geology gives to the degma of the mystalling the cooler, nights of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the professional walker, as shown on the subject.

Then the afflicted man told his companies to geology gives to the degma of the mystalling the cooler, nights of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the professional walker, as shown on the subject.

The tree is one occupation more wick.

The tree is one occupation more wick again into the world.

The tree is one occupation more wick and the subject of the degma of the mystalling the cooler, nights of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the subject.

The tree is one occupation more wick and in the ten of the sympathy of humanity as well as the intent of the law is on their side, as the subject.

The tree is one occupation more wick and in the ten of the world.

The tree is one occupation more wick and in the subject.

The tree is one occupation of the w wooden bench in the court house portitogether unfavorably to the heirs, for the geology gives to the dogma of the myson suddenly, I thought of the swill bar'l Mass., last week. Waters literally drag- municipal authorities, citizens and con- keenly than one might suppose, and who died recently at Haverhill, Mass., may have arisen in a feeling akin to incamstances told above. And he stated that thoughts of the pledge of reappearance came to him often during the few ance came to him often during the few and that was all that saved it. A small that saved it. A ance came to him often during the few months after his comrade was killed, months after his comrade was killed, some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savier of mankind save. Bertha Sythes to whom he willed all his some manner. one hundred hours' walk without rest, licited and did it op in a tell man been put down lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the himself with the Savior of mankind, saylifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with some manner. The couple brooked the lifting his tired and swollen feet with swollen feet A correspondent of the Richmond but he had long since dismissed it Whig writes: "A short time ago I had Whig writes: "A short time ago I had Whig writes: "A short time ago I had of the like Christ, had not where property, valued at $75,000 leaving his that country was an absolutely unknown it took me a good while to find it outthe pleasure of visiting what remains of he was wakened in the night, and saw seemed to the by-standers as if he were ble fortitude, and seemed to enjoy the land, and partly because the limited Ungrateful.—This is what happenthe royal palace of the princely Powthe royal palace of the princely Powthe form of his friend, distinctly, in his find death."

They naturally look for

They naturally look for lo Ungrateful.—This is what happened the other night when it rained so, and just before this last snow. Our inand just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so,
and just before this last snow. Our ined the other night when it rained so, but in the form of his friend, distinctly, in his room—not in uniform, but with a robe for apparel, a face not very pale, and
for apparel, a face not very pale, and departed husband and father, and unless the form of his friend, distinctly, in his seventy pars before I knew it," and which mysticism is founded, was the learned the royal palace of the princely Powwhich mysticism is founded, was the learned the royal palace of the princely Powwhich mysticism is founded, was the learned the royal palace of the princely Powand after the exit of the visitors about offered to him. He called one day at departed husband and father, and unless and just before this last snow. Our included in the most substantial for apparel, a face not very pale, and learned to repeat the repeat to repeat the learned to repeat the learned to repeat the repeat the repeat the repeat the repeat the learned to repeat the rep The Carapa Tree. The attention of commerce has been

A Heroine by Mistake.

er made his appearance, when the Gerparson says: "Our bachelor friend was man dropped his razor, in astonishment, and exclaimed, 'Vel, mine Gott! dat man has the fastest beard I never saw! to go and see it,' said one. Here is a notion quite prevalent in a hot fire drink in a most expressive gesture, and said, the courage, she exclaimed, "Good gracious, the courage and pick it, even from the single from Seranthe four head the gracious that the drink in the drink in the story that the drink in the story that the gracious the gracious that the gracious the gracious that the gracious that the gracious the gracious that the gracious that the gracious the gracious that the gracious the gracious that the gracious that the gracious the gracious the gracious that the gracious the gracious that the gracious the hands by Mrs. M. Huff, in whose family the box has been for over two hundred years. A Latin inscription on the the years. A Latin inscription on the the years. A Latin inscription on the the wandering months and other top gives paobably a clue to its origin, his hat off, striking his forehead with a secret cure for diphtheria, to the sale workers in iron also unemployed in the materialization." This number opens but could not be deciphered by the Re. his open hand, looking up at the moon of which he devotes his energies. The adjoining iron-producing and manufacture with a poem by Louise Chandler Moulpublican reporter, except the words "A. and calling himself a lunatic, a starman has lately become religious (7). At turing country making altogether an ton, illustrated by Mary A. Hallock. gazer, and delivering an address to an imaginary audience in the heavens.

Iman has lately become religious. The man has lately become religious. The man has lately become religious. Turing country making altogether and ton, illustrated by alary a rmy of 90,000 idle men in this part of Pennsylvania.

There are poems, also, by F. W. Bourdellon, Mary L. Ritter, James Maurice The Californians are opening the Yo- But let us pity rather than censure him. up my mind to give my property to the semite Valley, the year round. A par- "At many periods of his life he made service of the Lord. I have several The Reading (Pa.) Times thus refers middle of December, when there was quer his thirst for liquor. He said that I bestow on the church. I have some nesday morning Mr. William Kupp, "Temporal and Spiritual," and "Reform The supply of black walnut lumber is reported to be greatly diminished. A Cleveland, Ohio, paper says: Kentucky has quite a stock of good walnut, and that quite a stock of good walnut, and the supply of black walnut lumber is reported to be greatly diminished. A cleveland, Ohio, paper says: Kentucky has quite a stock of good walnut, and that quite a stock of good walnut, and the supply of black walnut lumber is reported to be greatly diminished. A cleveland, Ohio, paper says: Kentucky has quite a stock of good walnut, and the supply of black walnut lumber is reported to be greatly diminished. A cleveland, Ohio, paper says: Kentucky has quite a stock of good walnut, and the supply of black walnut lumber is reported to be greatly diminished. A cleveland, Ohio, paper says: Kentucky has quite a stock of good walnut, and the while, looked up and said: the while, looked up and said: the manner I give to the Church. There is to the gallon is suitable for use in all my possessions some idea of his immense size may be substitutes as were suggested to him. I resome in the continue of the same moment, the inhabitation is in the same moment, the inhabitation is an all my possessions which I reserve for myself, and that is gathered from the fact that the calf of limits of the same moment, the inhabitation is an all my possessions which I reserve for myself, and that is gathered from the fact that the calf of limits of the same moment, the inhabitation is an all my possessions which I reserve for myself, and that is gathered from the fact that the calf of limits of the clear of the same moment, the inhabitation is an all my possessions and the same moment is to the same moment in the same moment is to the same moment in the same moment is to the same manner I give to the Church. There is to the same manner I give to the Church.

Man's Origin the South.

to be humorous at the expense of peo-NUMBER 43, ple with whom he is but slighty acnainted. In fact, it is neither good manners nor wise policy to joke at anybody's expense: that is to say, to make anybody uncomfortable merely to raise [From the Galaxy for Feburary.] a laugh. Old Æsop, who was doubtless The necromancers of the middle ages the subject of many a jibe on account of used to teach that wisdom came from the his hump back, tells the whole story east, and that in the center of Africa in his fable of "The Boys and the Frogs." there was a tribe of white men who pos- What was fun to the youngsters was existence. If God has managed the pountry, is engaging the attention of a man in good shape, helped him aboard haps never has been equaled in all the last Tuesday evening, a very interesting matter so far, I shall permit him to conwell-known physician in Davenport just and seated him at the end furthest from histories of romance. It was the marriand value that it would be worthy of public notice, even were it not on other obscure foundation in the history of friendly joke in the same light coin, and man. Geology teaches that man has oc- will requite it with contumely and inaniac—while the patient himself declares that he is in his right mind; and that 'he' looked as much like a passenthat sensible enough on every topic be talks sensible enough on every topic ger as any one. The car moved off, afbut how much more is unknown. Pro- after you have forgotton it, and it is not bably he was not an original creation of prudent to incur any one's enmity for the soil, but was an immigrant. At least the sake of uttering a smart double eninch and a half, a large diamond, so large that no lady could wear it on her large that no lady could be also that no lady cou evidences that remain of his occupation. best, is a perilous weapon. Satire, howfore her imprisonment she was keeping his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Tom Marshall, dow, and calling the attention of those fore her imprisonment she was keeping his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Tom Marshall, dow, and calling the attention of those around him to a solitary tree standing in Great Britain, and considering them Frank Walker, a widower with three children. She went with Walker to Newark in the night season, and broke

Newark in the night season, and broke

The description of the deposits in which they occur, we beneath that tree in the middle of the large tree standing in Great Britain, and considering them in the light of the geological evidences of the deposits in which they occur, we beneath that tree in the middle of the large that it was precisely at a time when Fost Oxen. house. Some time after, Thomas Miles, of the community. Here Mrs. Marshall death." He said no more, but after r time an uprising of the country, that the ear-learn that it was precisely at a time when England was united to the continent by house. Some time after, rushed, and this place he called his a canal-boatman, who was then engaged to our heroine, burglariously stole five his home. But he came into town, and beneath the tree, but no stone nor mark beneath the tree, but no stone nor mark beneath the tree, but no stone nor mark it is true, but his remains are not found are too slow, and that they can be taught in earlier deposits, so that the known to go fast, "In India, the oldest counevidence carries us back to a time when try in the world, oxen take the place distance soften all things, his faults, his he could have come from the south. of horses, and they make as good time. After an occupation that doubtless ex- Therefore, why not train them to travel tended through a long period-perhaps fast in our own beloved land? The some thousand of years-he was driven out by increasing cold, which finally became so intense as to bring on an arctic When an ox gets into a corn-field, and condition of things. This age passed the dogs take after him, he can gallop away, and a temperate took the place of almost as fast as a deer; and when runthe winter cold, another long interval ning away on his own account he shufbeing occupied in this change. When it fles as lively as a dog. But it will be ended man reappeared in his former necessary to abandon the yoke, which home, but not the same man. He had is clumsy at best, and put on harness, as increased his powers, and his powers is done in North Carolina; and, beside, show marked evidences of development the rattling of the yoke, and the jingduring his absence. Such is the conclu- ling of the drawn chain would not sound sion which Dr. Gerikie reaches from his well as one drives up to church on Sunstudy of the glacial deposits in England day morning at a round trot. Further, which contain the first signs of man to guide them with precision while going furnished by that country. According to this reasoning, man has lived longer ir sounthern countries than then one can make his buggy wheel in northern. The countries lying near-graze another buggy wheel and lately attracted to the Carapa tree (Ca. mense establishment. It is seven stories rapa Guianeusis,) on account of the oil high, built of brick, iron and stone .which it produces. The tree abounds Twenty-six hundred tons of iron were in French Guiana, especially in the Dia used in its construction and 22,000,000 A curiosity in the possession of M. S. for me and I will return and get it." He son left as a sweet legacy to his relatives trict of Cachipoar, where it forms vast Mepham of this city, says the St. Louis did return in an hour or two, and ate with there is one thing he should have re-Republican, is deserving of more than an appetite difficult to satisfy. He ex- membered, and that is, that Mrs. beautiful, glossy pinnate leaves, with passing observation. The article in plained and excused his hearty meal by Thompson has a dower right of one-third many leaflets. The oil is yielded by ventilation embraces 2,042 distinct flues, centuries it laid in a monastery and of another meal for an equal length of alienated by will or otherwise without and are so abundant as to cover the employed on the building at one time, when feudalism became a thing of the time. But his insatiable thirst for drink consent. It is only a woman who can ground to a depth of several inches. If 1,000 gas lights being required for the past it came into the hands of a German survived all this. It was sad, yes it bequeath her husband "one dollar and collected during this period, the seeds night force. The hotel was crected by yield about 35 per cent, of an oil that is Mr. C. W. Ralston, president of the thick, bitter, and anthelmintic. It is Bank of California, and Mr. Sharon, the said to be particularly useful in guarding against rust, and is much used in lamps. The natives also rub it over their bodlighted a fire. The unearthly noises the ice fell away, the water increased in but all to no purpose. It was the stimulathe heaviest man in the United States. He was said to have been a singularly Not many years ago the marriags of a

Humor and Sarcasm.

is ignorant of these conditions had better not joke at all. A gentleman never attempts to be humorous at the attempts

It is not everybody who knows where to joke, or when, or how; and whoever way to do this is to put on the whip, gee" must be dropped and bits be used; est the poles were, during the glacial no harm will be done. Next year period, suffering from prolonged periods agricultural societies should offer pre-

The Deacon's Swill-Barrel.

Just outside of the house stood father, the deacon, tugging away at a big lump

"Bad business, that," said I, resting cake of ice out by a stout stick that had frozen up in the swill. "Many an' many sooner," said he.

AN IMMENSE HOTEL.-The Palace, in San Francisco, which is to be ready brick. There are 757 rooms for guists roof. Thirteen handred persons were by a Woman' was the way the story A correspondent writing from Seranart work, by J. R. G. Hassand. There men engaged in the various departments have elimpses of London society of for-Thompson, and others.